

I strongly oppose any effort that weakens or removes restrictions on the number of broadcast media any single person or organization may own. The centralization of the media is a dangerous threat to the most basic principles of democracy. I urge you to strengthen such restrictions.

Thank you for reconsidering any proposed changes.